What to expect

My goal is to create a relaxed, pressure-free environment for you and your family. I want to capture you at your most natural and spontaneous. I do everything I can to make the experience fun and care-free. I work 100% with natural light, in natural settings where you can relax, play, and forget I'm there. I'll be snapping away freely capturing love, beauty, silliness, and pure joy.

Session Information

I do my best to customize your session to your personal needs. Whether it be scheduling a morning session for a fresh and rested newborn, or an evening session to ensure your entire family is available, I do my best to work around naps, meals, and busy work schedules. Your session will last from 1 - 3 hours, depending on location and type of portraiture.

From session to delivery, I spend between 15-20 hours working with you and your project to ensure that each portrait is to your 100% liking. Allow roughly two weeks for standard portrait orders. Please keep this in mind when booking your session, and give yourself plenty of breathing room with any deadlines involving your images.
